

Mock Poll voting working sheet

Start the mock poll by 6-6.15 AM ((Chapter XXXIV)– At least 100 votes to be done (Chapter XII) -put a tick mark in each cell and add – (Micro Observer to note the mock poll chapter IX) – Mock Poll Certificate to be obtained (Annexure XVII). At least two votes to be done for unrepresented candidates. All candidates should get votes.

SL No	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Candidate Name	1	2	3							Candidate Name	1	2	3
1										36										71
2										37											72
3										38											73
4										39											74
5										40											75
6										41											76
7										42											77
8										43											78
9										44											79
10										45											80
11										46											81
12										47											82
13										48											83
14										49											84
15										50											85
16										51											86
17										52											87
18										53											88
19										54											89
20										55											90
21										56											91
22										57											92
23										58											93
24										59											94
25										60											95
26										61											96
27										62											97
28										63											98
29										64											99
30										65											100
31										66											101
32										67											102
33										68											103
34										69											104
35										70											105
Total

Total votes for candidate 1: -      2:-      3: -      4:-      5: -      6: -      7:-      8:-      9: -