Instructions

1. Please furnish details for every item in the proposal form.
2. First premium for the policy shall be remitted in any Govt. Treasury by chalan under the Head of Account '8011-105-99' State Life Insurance Fund or by Demand Draft drawn in favour of the District Insurance Officer or by Direct remittance in the District Insurance Office concerned.
3. Chalan No., Date of remittance and the name of Treasury should be furnished clearly and the original Chalan Receipt should be attached with the proposal.
4. Taking of policy with higher rates of premium than the prescribed minimum rate based on Basic pay will help the insured exempt from taking additional policies on increase in pay in future. (The existing Bonus rate is Rs.78-81 for 1000 rupees of the sum assured. Cash loan against policy will be granted up to a maximum of 80% of the surrender value of the policy).
5. The deduction of Monthly Premium from salary shall be started only after receiving the policy number.
6. Premium for the current month shall be deducted from the salary for the previous month. If there occurs any lapse in prompt deduction, the policy holder should remit the premium in any Govt. Treasury within a month and forward the original chalan receipt to the Insurance Department.
7. Name, Policy No. and amount of premium should be clearly shown in the monthly premium deduction schedules.
8. The rate of premium of a policy should not be changed. Additional policies should be taken on increase in Basic Pay. (Seperate proposals are to be sent for this purpose).
9. A policy will lapse when there is continuous default of 6 months premium. Policy holders who avail L.W.A. or resign from service may remit their premium directly (monthly or more instalments in advance).
10. Those who have crossed the age of 50 years are not eligible for taking policy/Additional Policy.
